

Hotel Wren

Employee Handbook

2026

Table of Contents

Introduction	6
Company Values	6
Office Location:	6
Employment Information	6
At-Will Employment	6
Right to Revise	7
Ethics Code	7
Equal Employment Opportunity	7
ADA Policy	8
Anti-Harassment and Anti-Discrimination Policy	9
Equal Pay Policy	12
Captive Audience Meetings Policy	13
Open Door Policy	13
Job Descriptions	13
Access to Personnel Files	14
Personal Information	14
Company Policies	15
Getting to Know You	15
Employee Status	15
Verification of Identity/Employment Eligibility	16
Whistleblower Policy	16
Outside Employment	17
Lactation Accommodation Policy	17
Social Media Policy	18
Use of Cellular Phones or Mobile Communication Devices	20
Fraternization	21
Bullying/Abusive Conduct	21
Dress Code	23
Job Performance	24
Employee Conduct and Discipline	24
Conflicts of Interest	25
Customer, Client, and Visitor Relations	26

Payroll and Timekeeping	26
Hours of Operations and Work Schedules	26
Attendance	27
Paycheck Information	27
Paycheck Deductions	27
Rest Breaks and Meal Breaks	28
Time Tracking	29
Overtime	29
Prohibition Against Working Off the Clock	29
One Day's Rest in Seven	30
Split Shift Pay	30
Report-In Pay	30
Report-In Pay Chart	30
Expense Reimbursement	31
Safety	31
General Safety	31
Business Closure and Emergencies	31
Drug and Alcohol Policy	32
Smoke-Free Workplace	33
Policy Against Workplace Violence	34
COVID19	34
Emergency Conditions	35
Benefits	35
Sick Time	35
Vacation Time	36
Worker's Compensation	37
State Disability Insurance	37
Unemployment Insurance	37
Time off and Leaves of Absence	38
Bereavement Leave	38
Reproductive Loss Leave	38
California Family Rights Act (CFRA)	38
Pregnancy Disability Leave	41
Voting time	42

Time off for Victim of Domestic Violence, Sexual Assault, or Stalking	42
Jury Duty and Witness Leave	42
Military/Veterans Leave	43
Volunteer Civil Service and Training Leave	43
Crime Victims Leave	44
Personal Leave	44
Miscellaneous Leave Laws	45
Termination	45
Involuntary Resignation	45
Voluntary Resignation	45
Exit Interviews	45
Closing Statement	45

Welcome to Hotel Wren!

On behalf of your colleagues, we welcome you to Hotel Wren and wish you every success here. We believe that each employee contributes directly to our Company's growth and success, and we hope you will take pride in being a member of our team.

The purpose of this handbook is to provide employees with clear guidelines and expectations regarding Company policies, procedures, standards of conduct, and outline responsibilities of both the Company and employees. It aims to promote a positive, ethical, and productive work environment. This employee handbook describes some of our expectations and outlines the policies, programs, and benefits available to eligible employees.

None of the policies or procedures outlined herein are intended to infringe upon rights guaranteed to employees under Section 7 of the National Labor Relations Act, including the right to engage in concerted activities for mutual aid or protection. Nothing in this handbook should be construed as prohibiting employees from exercising those guaranteed rights.

Employees should familiarize themselves with the contents of the employee handbook as soon as possible, as it will answer many questions about employment with Hotel Wren. If you have any questions about these policies or policies not described in this handbook, please see HR.

We hope your experience here will be challenging, enjoyable and rewarding.

Sincerely,

Jessica Pell
Owner

Introduction

Company Values

To create and encourage an environment of ongoing growth and improvement, we need to cultivate a team aligned with our goals. To that end, we've identified some core characteristics we believe each of our team members need to possess. They include:

- Optimistic warmth: because hospitality is hopeful, confident, thoughtful, generous and openhearted
- Curiosity: to learn more each day, both about what we do and our guests
- Precise work ethic: the desire to do each task the best possible way each time
- Self-aware accountability: to monitor one's own actions and hold yourself accountable to the standard we set
- Caring, Trust & Respect: of each other, the guests and the business as a whole

To respect our guests, we must begin with respecting each other. When each member of the team is willing to go to bat for each other, the mutual trust and respect created by that environment is infectious, and immediately creates a foundation of caring for our guests. Our priority is to ensure that all our team members are being hospitable to each other first, and the rest will follow.

Office Location:

Hotel Wren
6340 El Rey Ave.
Twenty-nine Palms, California
92277

Employment Information

At-Will Employment

Employment with Hotel Wren is "at-will." This means that you may terminate your employment at any time with or without notice or cause. It also means that the Company can terminate your employment, at any time, with or without notice or cause. While the Company generally adheres to progressive discipline, it is not bound or obligated to do so. Again, in the Company's sole discretion, you may be terminated at any time, with or without notice or cause. In addition, the Company may need to alter your employment status, employment hours, schedule or demote you at its own discretion with or without notice or cause.

As an at-will-employee, you are not guaranteed, in any manner, that you will be employed for any set period of time. No one in the Company, except the President, in a written, signed contract, may make any representation, or promise to you that you are other than an at-will employee. Any employee, manager or supervisor who makes such a representation or promise to you is not authorized to do so.

Right to Revise

This employee handbook contains the employment policies and practices of Hotel Wren in effect at the time of publication. All previously issued handbooks and any inconsistent policy statements or memoranda are superseded.

Hotel Wren reserves the right to revise, modify, delete, or add to any and all policies, procedures, work rules, or benefits stated in this handbook or in any other document, except for the policy of at-will employment. However, any such changes must be in writing and must be signed by the President.

Any written changes to this handbook will be distributed to all employees via e-mail so that employees will be aware of the new policies or procedures. No oral statements or representations can in any way alter the provisions of this handbook.

This handbook sets forth the entire agreement between you and Hotel Wren as to the duration of employment and the circumstances under which employment may be terminated. Nothing in this employee handbook or in any other human resource-related document, including benefit plan descriptions, creates or is intended to create a promise or representation of continued employment for any employee.

Ethics Code

Hotel Wren will conduct business honestly and ethically wherever operations are maintained. We strive to improve the quality of our services, products, and operations and will maintain a reputation for honesty, fairness, respect, responsibility, integrity, trust, and sound business judgment. Our managers and employees are expected to adhere to high standards of business and personal integrity as a representation of our business practices, at all times consistent with their duty of loyalty to the Company.

We expect that officers, directors, and employees will not knowingly misrepresent the Company and will not speak on behalf of the Company unless specifically authorized. The confidentiality of trade secrets, proprietary information, and similar confidential commercially-sensitive information (i.e. financial or sales records/reports, marketing or business strategies/plans, product development, customer lists, patents, trademarks, etc.) about the Company or operations, or that of our customers or partners, is to be treated with discretion and only disseminated on a need-to-know basis (see policies relating to privacy).

Violation of the Code of Ethics can result in discipline, up to and including termination of employment. The degree of discipline imposed may be influenced by the existence of voluntary disclosure of any ethical violation and whether or not the violator cooperated in any subsequent investigation.

Equal Employment Opportunity

Hotel Wren is an equal opportunity employer. In accordance with applicable law, we prohibit discrimination against any applicant or employee based on any legally-recognized basis, including, but not limited to: veteran status, uniformed service member status, race, color, religion, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, age (40 and over), pregnancy (including childbirth, lactation and related medical conditions), national origin or ancestry, citizenship status, physical or mental disability, genetic information (including testing and characteristics) or any other consideration protected by federal, state or local law. Our commitment to equal opportunity employment applies to all persons involved in our operations and prohibits unlawful discrimination by any employee, including supervisors and co-workers.

Hotel Wren expressly prohibits any form of unlawful employee harassment or discrimination based on any of the characteristics mentioned above. Improper interference with the ability of other employees to perform their expected job duties is absolutely not tolerated.

Any employees with questions or concerns about equal employment opportunities in the workplace are encouraged to bring these issues to the attention of a manager or HR. Our Company will not allow any form of retaliation against individuals who raise issues of equal employment opportunity. If an employee feels they have been subjected to any such retaliation, they should bring it to the attention of a manager or HR.

Retaliation means adverse conduct taken because an individual reported an actual or perceived violation of this policy, opposed practices prohibited by this policy, or participated in the reporting and investigation process described below. "Adverse conduct" includes but is not limited to: shunning and avoiding an individual who reports harassment, discrimination, or retaliation; express or implied threats or intimidation intended to prevent an individual from reporting harassment, discrimination, or retaliation; or denying employment benefits because an applicant or employee reported harassment, discrimination or retaliation or participated in the reporting and investigation process.

Complaints of discrimination should be filed according to the procedures described in the Harassment and Complaint Procedure.

ADA Policy

It is the policy of Hotel Wren to comply with the Americans with Disabilities Act ("ADA") as well as applicable state and local laws relating to disability issues. We will not discriminate against any qualified employee or job applicant with respect to any terms, privileges, or conditions of employment because of a person's physical or mental disability. We will also reasonably accommodate all employees or applicants with disabilities who are otherwise qualified to safely perform the essential duties of the job unless any such accommodations would impose an undue hardship on the Company.

- Applicants and employees are assured that all information regarding a disability shall be kept completely confidential except that:
- Supervisors and managers may be informed regarding restrictions on work or duties of disabled employees and any accommodations that have been made;
- If the condition requires emergency treatment, first aid and safety personnel may be informed; and

- Government officials investigating compliance with federal laws may need to be informed in certain circumstances.

All employees with responsibilities which may require knowledge of disabilities will be advised that they are to treat that knowledge with confidentiality. If you are in need of an accommodation, please contact Human Resources.

Anti-Harassment and Anti-Discrimination Policy

Hotel Wren is committed to maintaining a work environment in which all individuals are treated with respect and dignity. Everyone has the right to work in an atmosphere that promotes equal opportunities and prohibits discriminatory practices, including sexual and other forms of discrimination or harassment. Therefore, our Company expects that all relationships among our employees and other contacts be respectful and free of bias, prejudice, discrimination, and harassment. This policy governs all aspects of employment, including recruiting, hiring, compensation, benefits, job assignments, promotions, scheduling, training, transfers, layoff/recall, discipline, termination, and all other terms, conditions, or privileges of employment.

Prohibited Discrimination and Harassment

In keeping with this commitment, Hotel Wren maintains a strict policy prohibiting discrimination, retaliation or harassment of our applicants, employees, guests, interns, volunteers, vendors, clients, and client prospects based on any protected characteristic or status, as defined by law, including:

- Age (40 and over)
- Ancestry
- Color
- Exercising the right to family care and medical leave
- Gender
- Gender identity
- Gender expression
- Genetic information
- Marital status
- Medical condition (cancer and genetic characteristics)
- Mental disability (including clinical depression and bipolar disorder)
- Military and veteran status
- National origin (including language use restrictions and possession of a driver's license issued under Vehicle Code section 12801.9)
- Physical disability (including HIV/AIDS, hepatitis, epilepsy, seizure disorder, diabetes, multiple sclerosis, and heart disease)
- Race
- Religious creed (including religious dress and grooming)
- Sex (including pregnancy, childbirth, breastfeeding, or related medical conditions)
- Sexual orientation
- Off-duty marijuana use

- Any combination of protected characteristics

The prohibition against discrimination and harassment applies not only to the Company, but also to coworkers, supervisors, managers, and third parties with whom an employee may come into contact.

Harassment of any employee by another co-worker, supervisor, or manager, third party, or anyone with whom the employee comes into contact while engaging in job duties for Hotel Wren is strictly prohibited by law and a violation of the Company's policy. Likewise, harassment by any employee toward any customer, vendor, guest, client or other third party of the Company is also strictly prohibited. If any of the listed above ever makes you feel uncomfortable or unsafe in any way, please let a manager or HR know right away.

Prohibited Harassment

Harassment consists of many forms of offensive behavior, including sexual harassment, which also means harassment based on gender, pregnancy, childbirth, or related medical conditions. It includes harassment of a person of the same or different gender. The conduct does not need to be motivated by sexual desire in order to be prohibited. Sexual harassment is not only a violation of our policy; it is a violation of both California and Federal law. Sexual harassment is defined as unwelcome sexual advances, requests for sexual favors, and other verbal, visual, or physical conduct of a sexual nature when either:

1. Submission to such conduct is an explicit or implicit condition for employment decisions affecting the individual; or
2. Such conduct has the purpose or effect of unreasonably interfering with an individual's work performance or creates an intimidating, hostile, or offensive working environment.

Examples of prohibited sexual harassment include:

- Threatening to, or actively making, job decisions such as discharge, demotion, or reassignment if sexual favors are not granted;
- Demanding sexual favors in exchange for favorable or preferential treatment;
- Making offensive, insulting, derogatory, or degrading remarks relating to sex, gender, pregnancy, childbirth, or related medical conditions;
- Making unwelcome comments about an individual's physical appearance;
- Kidding, teasing, or joking about sexual matters, or using sexually explicit or offensive language, either in person, on paper, or through email or other electronic means, including text messages;
- Displaying in the workplace sexually suggestive objects, pictures, or cartoons, including material from the Internet;
- Making offensive contact, such as hugging, grabbing, patting, pinching, or brushing against another's body;
- Using obscene or sexually oriented language or gestures; and
- Making repeated offensive sexual flirtations, advances, and propositions.

It is also essential to understand that consenting romantic and sexual relationships between managers/supervisors in senior or supervisory positions and less-senior or lower-level employees, or between co-workers, may lead to unforeseen complications.

The respect and trust accorded a more senior/supervisory person by a lower-level employee, as well as the position of the senior person to evaluate or otherwise supervise the lower-level person, could diminish the extent to which the lower-level employee feels free to choose whether or not to engage in such relationships.

It is not the Company's intention to attempt to legislate social behavior within Company. We do, however, recognize that encouraging and developing close social relationships, including dating, with employees makes any supervisor's job more difficult. Because of this, supervisors should refrain from dating and developing close social relationships with employees under their supervision. Furthermore, if a supervisor develops a romantic relationship with a subordinate employee, the supervisor should bring it to the attention of either a manager or HR so the Company can confirm that the relationship is consensual.

Retaliation Prohibited

Hotel Wren prohibits any form of retaliation against an employee for:

- Reporting discrimination or harassment;
- Submitting a report or helping another to submit a report pursuant to this policy;
- Requesting a reasonable accommodation for a mental or physical disability, pregnancy, or religious belief;
- Opposing any conduct or practice that the employee reasonably and in good faith believes to be contrary to this policy;
- Assisting or participating in an investigation;
- Filing a complaint with a government agency or participating in an investigation, proceeding, or hearing concerning discrimination or harassment; or
- Exercising any other legally protected rights;
- Engaging in certain protected activities (filing or participating in a Labor Commission claim or Fair Pay Act claim, engaging in lawful off-duty conduct, etc.)

Retaliation is a serious violation of this policy, and incidents of retaliation must be reported immediately.

Reporting an Incident of Discrimination, Harassment or Retaliation

Hotel Wren encourages reporting all perceived incidents of discrimination or harassment, regardless of the offender's identity or position.

An employee who witnesses or experiences conduct that is harassing, discriminatory, retaliatory, or otherwise inconsistent with this policy must immediately report the matter. While an oral report may be submitted, a written report is preferred to ensure a proper investigation and outcome. The report must be submitted to a manager or HR.

Alternatively employees may contact the California Civil Rights Department by calling (800) 884-1684 within California or (916) 227-0551 outside California. Reports can be made online at <https://ccrs.cacivilrights.ca.gov/s/> or mailed directly to:

Civil Rights Department
Right to Sue
2218 Kausen Drive, Suite 100
Elk Grove, CA 95758

It is a violation of this policy for anyone to attempt to discourage or prevent another from reporting discrimination, harassment, or retaliation.

Equal Pay Policy

Hotel Wren is committed to compensating employees equally for work requiring equal skill, effort, and responsibility performed under similar working conditions. We comply with all requirements of the California Equal Pay Act.

To meet this commitment:

- We evaluate job positions and roles to determine the required skill, effort, responsibility and working conditions. This drives our pay structure and compensation program.
- We do not differentiate pay for similar work based on an employee's sex, race, ethnicity, or other protected class membership. Exceptions are permitted if based on a bona fide seniority system, merit system, system measuring productivity, or geographic location.
- Employees have the right to disclose, discuss, or inquire about their own pay or co-workers' pay, but may not mandate what other employees must be paid.
- We do not retaliate against employees for exercising their rights under the Equal Pay Act. Employees may file complaints without fear of reprisal.
- Differences in compensation are based solely on job-related factors noted above, not on gender, race, or other protected status.
- Company leadership make compensation decisions in compliance with this policy. Pay inequity complaints will be promptly investigated.

Violations of this policy may result in disciplinary measures, up to and including termination. Employees may also seek civil remedies pursuant to the Equal Pay Act.

Employees with questions about equal pay are encouraged to contact Sweeter HR.

Captive Audience Meetings Policy

Hotel Wren will not require employees to attend or participate in meetings, discussions, or communications primarily focused on religious or political topics unrelated to the core business. Political topics include those related to the employee's position on a candidate, legislation, union matters, or any other political stance.

Employees have the right to:

- Decline participation in meetings or communications about political, religious, or union-related matters without fear of retaliation.
- Make individual decisions regarding political, religious, or union matters without employer influence or coercion.

Employees who feel they are being pressured to attend a meeting or participate in a communication violating this policy are encouraged to contact Human Resources. All reports will be handled confidentially and investigated thoroughly. The Hotel Wren prohibits any form of retaliation against employees who exercise their rights under this policy. Retaliation against employees for declining participation in a "captive audience meeting" will result in disciplinary action.

Open Door Policy

Hotel Wren has an Open-Door Policy for all employees, which provides an internal procedure to present work-related concerns, ideas, or suggestions. The Open-Door Policy is designed to encourage employees to communicate their concerns, ideas, or suggestions to their supervisors and to provide them with the option of carrying their concern to the next higher level of management, or to senior management without retaliation or fear of retaliation.

The Open-Door Policy is intended to provide effective communications within the Company but is not intended as a contractual right to any due process or grievance procedure.

Job Descriptions

Hotel Wren attempts to maintain a job description for each position. If you do not have a current copy of your job description, you should request one from your supervisors.

Job descriptions prepared by the Company serve as an outline only. Due to business needs, you may be required to perform job duties that are not within your written job description. Furthermore, the Company may have to revise, add to, or delete from your job duties per business needs. On occasion, the Company may need to revise job descriptions with or without advance notice to employees.

If you have any questions regarding your job description or the scope of your duties, please speak with your supervisors.

Access to Personnel Files

During their employment with Company, employees are expected to notify the Company promptly of any change of name, address, phone number, number of dependents or other applicable information to keep personnel records up to date, to ensure that the Company has the ability to contact employees and to ensure that the appropriate benefits are available to employees.

Additionally, during their employment, and following separation from the Company, employees may review the documents contained in their personnel files and copies of their earnings records upon submission of a signed, written request.

Eligibility

This policy applies to all current and former employees. In light of the confidential nature of information contained in employees' personnel and earnings records, the Company limits access to such records to the employee to whom the records pertain and persons with proper authorization, including for the purposes of the legal process.

Documents located in employees' personnel files will not be released without the employees' express written consent, except pursuant to legal process. Additionally, any records of medical evaluation results will be maintained in a separate file, in accordance with applicable legal requirements, and may be reviewed only by authorized individuals with the approval of the manager or HR.

Personal Information

The California Privacy Rights Act (CPRA) defines "sensitive personal information" as personal information that reveals (a) consumer's Social Security or other state identification number; (b) a consumer's account log-in, financial account, debit card, or credit card number in combination with any required security or access code, password, or credentials allowing access to an account; (c) consumer's geolocation; (d) consumer's racial or ethnic origin, religious or philosophical beliefs, or union membership; (e) the contents of a consumer's mail, email, or text messages, unless the business is the intended recipient of the communication; and (f) consumer's genetic data. In addition, "sensitive personal information" includes processing of biometric information for purposes of identifying a consumer; personal information collected and analyzed concerning a consumer's health, and personal information collected and analyzed concerning a consumer's sex life or sexual orientation.

The Company may collect and retain relevant personal information from employees, only as deemed necessary by the company for standard business operations (payroll, production and distribution of required notices, benefits enrollment, etc.), or as required by law.

Personal information may be shared with third-party entities, like insurance companies, operating systems representatives, government agencies, and the like. The Company will never sell or disclose employee personal information for monetary gain and will take every available measure to ensure personal information is handled sensitively and securely.

Emergency Contact Information Policy

To support employee safety and ensure timely communication in the event of an emergency, all employees are required to provide up-to-date emergency contact information upon hire and to keep this information current throughout employment.

Employees must provide the following information:

- Name of emergency contact
- Relationship to the employee
- Primary phone number
- Secondary phone number (if available)
- Any additional information the employee wishes the company to have for emergency situations

Emergency contact information may be submitted in one of the following ways:

Entering the required information directly into the Company's HRIS system, or

Completing and returning the Company's Emergency Contact Form (Word document or equivalent format) to Human Resources

Employees are responsible for updating their emergency contact information whenever there are changes, such as a new phone number or a change in the designated contact person. The Company may periodically request that employees review and confirm the accuracy of the information on file.

All emergency contact information is maintained confidentially and used only for legitimate business or emergency purposes.

Failure to provide or maintain accurate emergency contact information may hinder the Company's ability to respond appropriately in the event of an emergency.

Company Policies

Getting to Know You

Your first ninety (90) calendar day period of employment is a time for you to get acquainted with the Company and our operations and for us to get to know you. It is especially important that you make your supervisor aware of any questions or problems you may have during this period. You must satisfactorily complete this assessment period before being considered for continued employment. In some instances, the assessment period may be extended.

After successful completion of the assessment period, you will become a regular full-time or part-time employee and will be eligible for various employee benefits. Of course, Hotel Wren will continue to evaluate your performance following the assessment period and throughout your employment to ensure your continued adherence to Company performance standards and objectives.

In addition, satisfactory completion of the assessment period does not alter the at-will nature of your employment with Hotel Wren.

Employee Status

For purposes of calculating wages and eligibility for Company benefits, Hotel Wren uses employee classifications. This policy is intended to clarify the Company's employee classifications so that employees understand their employment status and eligibility for benefits. Nothing in this policy is intended to, or does, alter the Company's at-will employment policy. Both the employee and the Company have the right and ability to terminate the employment relationship at any time, and for any reason.

Eligibility

This policy applies to all employees. Employees with questions concerning their classifications or the benefits for which they qualify should contact their Manager or the applicable benefits plan documents.

Procedures

Full-time employees

Full-time employees are those normally scheduled to work at least 40 hours per week, as determined by the Company in its sole discretion.

Part-time employees

Part-time employees are those normally scheduled to work less than 40 hours per week, as determined by the Company in its sole discretion.

Temporary employees

Temporary employees are those employed to work on special projects for short periods of time, or on a "fill-in" basis. These positions are not intended to be a part of the Company's continuing operations. The employment status of temporary employees will not be changed due to an extension of employment in excess of that originally planned. Unless otherwise required by applicable law, temporary employees are not eligible for company benefits.

Non-exempt employees

Nonexempt employees are those who are covered by the overtime provisions of the federal Fair Labor Standards Act or any applicable California state law.

Exempt employees

Exempt employees are those who are classified by the Company as exempt from the overtime provisions of the federal Fair Labor Standards Act and any applicable California state law.

Verification of Identity/Employment Eligibility

Every new employee must complete all documentation required by the United States Internal Revenue Service ("IRS") and the United States Citizenship and Immigration Services ("USCIS").

In compliance with the requirements set forth in the Immigration Reform and Control Act of 1986 ("IRCA"), all offers of employment are contingent upon an applicant's ability to satisfy requirements regarding proof of identity and the lawful right to be employed in the United States.

Falsification of any documents required for verification of employment eligibility constitutes grounds for denial of employment to any applicant or, for employees, disciplinary action up to and including termination from employment, regardless of when discovered.

Whistleblower Policy

If any employee reasonably believes that some policy, practice, or activity of Hotel Wren is in violation of law, a written complaint may be filed with a manager or HR.

It is the intent of Hotel Wren to adhere to all laws and regulations that apply to the organization, and the underlying purpose of this Policy is to support the organization's goal of legal compliance. The support of all employees is necessary to achieve compliance with various laws and regulations. An employee is protected from retaliation only if the employee brings the alleged unlawful activity, policy, or practice to the attention of our Company and provides Hotel Wren with a reasonable opportunity to investigate and correct the alleged unlawful activity. The protection described below is only available to employees that comply with this requirement.

Hotel Wren will not retaliate against an employee who, in good faith, has made a protest or raised a complaint against some practice of our Company. This includes any other individual, or entity with whom Company had a business relationship, based on a reasonable belief that the practice is in violation of law or a clear mandate of public policy.

Hotel Wren will not retaliate against an employee who discloses, or threatens to disclose to a supervisor, or a public body any activity, policy, or practice of our Company that the employee reasonably believes is in violation of a law, or a rule, or regulation mandated pursuant to law or is in violation of a clear mandate or public policy concerning health, safety, welfare, or protection of the environment.

Outside Employment

Outside employment that creates a conflict of interest or that affects the quality or value of your work performance or availability at Hotel Wren is prohibited. The Company recognizes that you may seek additional employment during off hours, but in all cases expects that any outside employment will not affect your attendance, job performance, productivity, work hours, or scheduling, or would otherwise adversely affect your ability to effectively perform your duties or in any way create a conflict of interest.

Any outside employment that will conflict with your duties and obligations to the Company should be reported to your supervisors. Failure to adhere to this policy may result in discipline up to and including termination.

Workplace Searches

In the interest of safety, health and efficiency, and in an effort to ensure that the work environment at Hotel Wren is free of threats from drugs, alcohol, theft and firearms, the Company reserves the right to inspect all areas and items which are Hotel Wren property, such as, for example, desks and lockers, at any time without notice. For those same reasons, the Company also reserves the right to inspect employees themselves and/or all other areas at the workplace and property of employees which are present at the workplace in those instances in which there is a reasonable suspicion that drugs, alcohol, stolen items, firearms or other illegal or inappropriate materials are present.

Although various forms of Company property, such as desks, and related locations and items, are made available for the convenience of employees while at work, employees should remember that all such items and locations remain the sole property of the Company. Such inspections can occur at any time, with or without advance notice or consent. Further, such inspections may be conducted during, before, or after working hours by any supervisor, manager, or security personnel designated by the Company. Employees who, if asked, fail to cooperate in any inspection may be subject to disciplinary action, including possible suspension or discharge.

Prohibited materials, including weapons, explosives, alcohol and non-prescribed drugs or medications, may not be placed in Company-owned property. Perishable items should not be stored in Company-owned property or left for prolonged periods. Valuable items such as jewelry, money, etc. also should not be stored in any Company-owned property. The Company is not responsible for any articles that are placed or left in Company property that are lost, damaged, stolen or destroyed.

Lactation Accommodation Policy

Hotel Wren provides a reasonable amount of break time to accommodate an employee's need to express breast milk for the employee's infant child. The Company will make a reasonable effort to provide the employee with the use of a room or other location in close proximity to the employee's work area for the employee to express milk in private. Such space will meet the requirements of the California Labor Code including a surface to place a breast pump and personal items, a place to sit, access to electricity, a sink with running water, and a refrigerator for storing breast milk.

Procedures

An employee may request an accommodation for lactation breaks by submitting a lactation accommodation request form to their department supervisor.

The department supervisor must respond to the employee's accommodation request in writing on the same lactation accommodation request form submitted by the employee indicating the approval or denial of the break request. The completed request form must be returned to the employee and a copy sent to the human resources department.

The requested break time should, if possible, be taken concurrently with other scheduled break periods. Nonexempt employees must clock out for any lactation breaks that do not run concurrently with normally scheduled rest periods. Any such breaks will be unpaid.

The Company reserves the right to deny, in writing, an employee's request for a lactation break if the additional break time will seriously disrupt operations.

Employees have the right to file a complaint with the labor commissioner for any violation of rights provided under Chapter 3.8 of the California Labor Code regarding lactation accommodations.

Social Media Policy

At Hotel Wren, we understand that social media can be a fun and rewarding way to share your life and opinions with family, friends, and co-workers around the world. However, use of social media also presents certain risks and carries with it certain responsibilities. To assist you in making responsible decisions about your use of social media, we have established these guidelines for appropriate use of social media.

This policy applies to all associates who work for Hotel Wren, or one of its subsidiary companies in the United States.

Guidelines

In the rapidly expanding world of electronic communication, social media can mean many things. Social media includes all means of communicating or posting information or content of any sort on the Internet, including to your own or someone else's web log or blog, journal or diary, personal web site, social networking or affinity web site, web bulletin board or a chat room, whether associated or affiliated with Hotel Wren or not, as well as any other form of electronic communication.

The same principles and guidelines found in Hotel Wren's policies apply to your activities online. Ultimately, you are solely responsible for what you post online. Before creating online content, consider some of the risks and rewards that are involved. Keep in mind that any of your conduct that adversely affects your job performance, the performance of fellow associates or otherwise adversely affects members, customers, suppliers, people who work on behalf of Hotel Wren or Hotel Wren's legitimate business interests may result in disciplinary action up to and including termination.

Know and Follow the Rules

Carefully read the guidelines for the Discrimination & Harassment Prevention Policy and ensure your postings are consistent with these policies. Inappropriate postings that may include discriminatory remarks, harassment, and threats of violence or similar inappropriate or unlawful conduct will not be tolerated and may subject you to disciplinary action up to and including termination.

Be Respectful

Always be fair and courteous to fellow associates, customers, members, suppliers, or people who work on behalf of Hotel Wren. Also, keep in mind that you are more likely to resolve work-related complaints by speaking directly with your co-workers or by utilizing our Open Door Policy than by posting complaints to a social media outlet. Nevertheless, if you decide to post complaints or criticism, avoid using statements, photographs, video, or audio that reasonably could be viewed as malicious, obscene, threatening or intimidating, that disparage customers, members, associates or suppliers, or that might constitute harassment or bullying. Examples of such conduct might include offensive posts meant to intentionally harm someone's reputation or posts that could contribute to a hostile work environment on the basis of race, sex, disability, religion or any other status protected by law or Company policy.

Be Honest and Accurate

Make sure you are always honest and accurate when posting information or news, and if you make a mistake, correct it quickly. Be open about any previous posts you have altered. Remember that the Internet archives almost everything; therefore, even deleted postings can be searched. Never post any information or rumors that you know to be false about Hotel Wren, fellow associates, members, customers, suppliers, people working on behalf of Hotel Wren or competitors.

Post Only Appropriate and Respectful Content

Maintain the confidentiality of Hotel Wren and Company Client trade secrets and private or confidential information. Trade secrets may include information regarding the development of systems, processes, products, know-how and technology. Do not post internal reports, policies, procedures, or other internal business-related confidential communications.

Respect financial disclosure laws. It is illegal to communicate or give a "tip" on inside information to others so that they may buy or sell stocks or securities. Such online conduct may also violate the Insider Trading Policy.

Do not create a link from your blog, website, or other social networking site to a Company website without identifying yourself as a Company associate.

Express only your personal opinions. Never represent yourself as a spokesperson for Hotel Wren. If Hotel Wren is a subject of the content you are creating, be clear and open about the fact that you are an associate and make it clear that your views do not represent those of Hotel Wren, fellow associates, members, customers, suppliers, or people working on behalf of Hotel Wren. If you do publish a blog or post online related to the work you do or subjects associated with Company, make it clear that you are not speaking on behalf of Hotel Wren. It is best to include a disclaimer such as "The postings on this site are my own and do not necessarily reflect the views of Hotel Wren."

Using Social Media at Work

Refrain from using social media during work time or on equipment we provide unless it is work-related as authorized by your manager or consistent with the Company Equipment Policy. Do not use your Company email addresses to register on social networks, blogs or other online tools utilized for personal use.

Retaliation is Prohibited

Hotel Wren prohibits taking negative action against any associate for reporting a possible deviation from this policy or for cooperating in an investigation. Any associate who retaliates against another associate for reporting a possible deviation from this policy or for cooperating in an investigation will be subject to disciplinary action, up to and including termination.

Media Contacts

Associates should not speak to the media on Hotel Wren's behalf without contacting Hotel Wren's Creative Director, Jessica Pell. All media inquiries should be directed to Jessica Pell.

For More Information

If you have questions or need further guidance, please contact the General Manager.

Use of Cellular Phones or Mobile Communication Devices

Cellphones should be turned off or set to silent or vibrate mode during meetings, conferences and in any circumstance where incoming calls may be disruptive.

Personal Cellphones

While at work, employees are expected to exercise discretion in using personal cellphones. Excessive personal calls during the workday can interfere with employee productivity and be distracting to others. Employees are encouraged to make any personal calls during nonwork time when possible and to ensure that friends and family members are aware of Hotel Wren's policy.

Hotel Wren will not be liable for the loss of personal cellphones brought into the workplace.

Safety Issues for Cellphone Use

All employees are expected to follow applicable local, state, and federal laws and regulations regarding the use of cellphones at all times.

Employees whose job responsibilities include regular or occasional driving and who are issued a cellphone for business use are expected to refrain from using their phone while driving; use of a cellphone while driving is not required by the Company. Safety must come before all other concerns. Regardless of the circumstances, including slow or stopped traffic, employees are required to use hands-free operations or pull off to the side of the road and safely stop the vehicle before placing or accepting a call. Employees are encouraged to refrain from discussion of complicated or emotional matters and to keep their eyes on the road while driving at all times. Special care should be taken in situations where there is traffic or inclement weather, or the employee is driving in an unfamiliar area.

Reading or sending text messages while driving is strictly prohibited. Employees who are charged with traffic violations resulting from the use of their phone while driving will be solely responsible for all liabilities that result from such actions.

Video or Audio Recording Devices

The use of camera or other video or audio recording-capable devices on Company premises is prohibited without the express prior permission of senior management and of the person(s) subject to recording. Video or audio recording in restrooms is strictly prohibited.

Consequences for Violators

Employees violating this policy will be subject to discipline, up to and including termination of employment.

Fraternization

Hotel Wren desires to avoid misunderstanding, complaints of favoritism, and possible claims of sexual harassment or morale and dissension problems that can result from certain personal relationships between employees. Accordingly, employees are prohibited from fraternizing or becoming romantically involved with another employee, contract worker, consultant, surgeon, or distributor when, in the opinion of Management, the personal relationship in question may create a potential conflict of interest, cause disruption, create a negative or unprofessional work environment, or present concerns regarding supervision, safety, security or morale. Each employee should remember that The Company will enforce a strict policy against unlawful harassment of any kind, including sexual harassment and racial discrimination.

Bullying/Abusive Conduct

The purpose of this policy is to communicate to all employees, including supervisors, managers, and executives, that Hotel Wren will not in any instance tolerate bullying behavior. Employees found in violation of this policy will be disciplined, up to and including termination.

Definition

Hotel Wren defines bullying as repeated, health-harming mistreatment of one or more people by one or more perpetrators. It is abusive conduct that includes:

- Threatening, humiliating, or intimidating behaviors.
- Work interference/sabotage that prevents work from getting done.
- Verbal abuse.

Such behavior violates Company's Code of Conduct, which clearly states that all employees will be treated with dignity and respect.

Examples

Hotel Wren considers the following types of behavior examples of bullying:

- Verbal bullying. Slandering, ridiculing, or maligning a person or their family; persistent name-calling that is hurtful, insulting, or humiliating; using a person as the butt of jokes; abusive and offensive remarks.
- Physical bullying. Pushing, shoving, kicking, poking, tripping, assault or threat of physical assault, damage to a person's work area or property.
- Gesture bullying. Nonverbal gestures that can convey threatening messages.
- Exclusion. Socially or physically excluding or disregarding a person in work-related activities.

In addition, the following examples may constitute or contribute to evidence of bullying in the workplace:

- Persistent singling out of one person.
- Shouting or raising one's voice at an individual in public or in private.
- Using obscene or intimidating gestures.
- Not allowing the person to speak or express themselves (i.e., ignoring or interrupting).
- Personal insults and use of offensive nicknames.
- Public humiliation in any form.
- Constant criticism on matters unrelated or minimally related to the person's job performance or description.
- Public reprimands.
- Repeatedly accusing someone of errors that cannot be documented.
- Deliberately interfering with mail and other communications.
- Spreading rumors and gossip regarding individuals.
- Encouraging others to disregard a supervisor's instructions.
- Manipulating the ability of someone to do their work (e.g., overloading, underloading, withholding information, setting deadlines that cannot be met, giving deliberately ambiguous instructions).
- Assigning menial tasks not in keeping with the normal responsibilities of the job.
- Taking credit for another person's ideas.
- Refusing reasonable requests for leave in the absence of work-related reasons not to grant leave.
- Deliberately excluding an individual or isolating them from work-related activities, such as meetings.
- Unwanted physical contact, physical abuse, or threats of abuse to an individual or an individual's property (defacing or marking up property).

Individuals who feel they have experienced bullying should report this to their supervisor or to Human Resources before the conduct becomes severe or pervasive. All employees are strongly encouraged to report any bullying conduct they experience or witness as soon as possible to allow Hotel Wren to take appropriate action.

Dress Code

Employee should adhere to the color pallet set forth by the hotel.

Hotel Wren welcomes your unique style but asks that you adhere to the following guidelines:

- Neutral-colored, earthy tones (desert color palette)
- No logos
- No frayed edges
- No rips or tears
- No athleisure wear, including workout clothes, sweatpants
- No flip flops
- No strong perfumes or colognes
- Wear the Wren lapel pin

We recommend:

- Loose breathable fabrics (linen, cotton)
- Clean T-shirts and button-downs

- Shorts, pants, skirts, or dresses
- Sweaters, jean jackets, crewneck sweatshirts
- The Hotel Wren baseball cap when available
- Earthy tones in the desert color palette in our style guide.
- Clean sneakers
- No flip flops but sandals like huaraches are fine

Inclement Weather

At the discretion of the department head, in special circumstances, such as during unusually hot or cold weather or during special occasions, staff members may be permitted to dress in a more casual fashion than is normally required. On these occasions, staff members are still expected to present a neat appearance and are not permitted to wear ripped, frayed, or disheveled clothing or athletic wear. Likewise, tight, revealing or otherwise workplace-inappropriate dress is not permitted.

All employees are expected to comply with this dress code in a manner consistent with their gender identity and expression. Employees who report to work inappropriately attired will be asked to leave work to change clothes and will be required to use personal time or vacation time to do so.

Any questions regarding appropriate summer dress should be directed to Human Resources.

Reasonable accommodation of religious beliefs

Hotel Wren recognizes the importance of individually held religious beliefs to persons within its workforce. Our Company will reasonably accommodate a staff member's religious beliefs in terms of workplace attire unless the accommodation creates an undue hardship. Accommodation of religious beliefs in terms of attire may be difficult in light of safety issues for staff members. Those requesting a workplace attire accommodation based on religious beliefs should be referred to a manager or HR.

Addressing workplace attire and hygiene problems

Violations of the policy can range from inappropriate clothing items to offensive perfumes and body odor. If a staff member comes to work in inappropriate dress, they will be required to go home, change into conforming attire, or properly groom, and return to work.

If a staff member's poor hygiene or use of too much perfume/cologne is an issue, the supervisor should discuss the problem with the staff member in private and should point out the specific areas to be corrected. If the problem persists, supervisors should follow the normal corrective action process, and could lead to termination.

Job Performance

Communication between employees and supervisors or managers is very important. Discussions regarding job performance are ongoing and often informal. Employees should initiate conversations with their supervisors if they feel additional ongoing feedback is needed.

Generally, formal performance reviews are conducted bi-annually. These reviews include a written performance appraisal and discussion between the employee and the supervisor about job performance and expectations for the coming year.

Employee Conduct and Discipline

Hotel Wren is responsible for providing a safe and secure workplace and strives to ensure that all individuals associated with the Company are treated in a respectful and fair manner. Though it is not possible to list all forms of behavior that are unacceptable in the workplace, the following are examples of behavior that would be considered infractions of Hotel Wren rules of conduct. Such behavior may result in disciplinary action, up to and including termination of employment. This list is not intended to be exhaustive:

- Violation of the policies and procedures set forth in this handbook.
- Inaccurate reporting of the hours worked by you or any other employees.
- Providing knowingly inaccurate, incomplete, or misleading information when speaking on behalf of the Company or in the preparation of any employment-related documents including, but not limited to, job applications, personnel files, employment review documents, intra-company communications, or expense records.
- Fighting with, or harassment of (as defined in our EEO policy), any fellow employee, vendor, or customer.
- Disclosure of Company trade secrets and proprietary and confidential commercially-sensitive information (i.e., financial or sales records/reports, marketing or business strategies/plans, product development information, customer lists, patents, trademarks, etc.) of the Company or its customers, contractors, suppliers, or vendors.
- Refusal or failure to follow directions or to perform a requested or required job task.
- Refusal or failure to follow safety rules and procedures.
- Excessive tardiness or absences.
- Theft or inappropriate removal or possession of Company property or the property of a fellow employee.
- Willful destruction of Company property or the property of a fellow employee.
- Working under the influence of alcohol or illegal drugs.
- Possession, distribution, sale, transfer or use of alcohol or illegal drugs in the workplace, while on duty or while operating employer-owned vehicles or equipment.
- Sexual or other harassment.
- Using excessively abusive, threatening, or obscene language.
- Using intimidation tactics and making threats.
- Sabotaging another's work.
- Making malicious, false, and harmful statements about others.
- Publicly disclosing another's private information.
- Possession of dangerous or unauthorized materials, such as explosives or firearms, in the workplace.
- Falsifying Company records or reports, including one's time records or the time records of another employee.
- Working unauthorized overtime.
- Solicitation of fellow employees on Company premises during working hours.
- Failure to dress according to Company policy.
- Use of obscene or harassing (as defined by our EEO policy) language in the workplace.

- Engaging in outside employment that interferes with your ability to perform your job at this Company.
- Gambling on Company premises.
- Lending keys or keycards to Company property to unauthorized persons.

Nothing in this policy is intended to limit your rights under the National Labor Relations or to modify the at-will employment status where at-will is not prohibited by state law.

Employees found to have violated Company policies will be subject to disciplinary/corrective action which, at the Company's discretion, may include: 1) progressive discipline; 2) suspension without pay; or 3) termination of employment.

Conflicts of Interest

Hotel Wren expects all employees to conduct themselves and company business in a manner that reflects the highest standards of ethical conduct, and in accordance with all federal, state, and local laws and regulations. This includes avoiding real and potential conflicts of interests.

Exactly what constitutes a conflict of interest, or an unethical business practice is both a moral and a legal question. Hotel Wren recognizes and respects the individual employee's right to engage in activities outside of employment which are private in nature and do not in any way conflict with or reflect poorly on the Company. Please do not approach, entice, solicit, or contact any Company clients or prospects for independent work.

It is not possible to define all the circumstances and relationships that might create a conflict of interest. If a situation arises where there is a potential conflict of interest, the employee should discuss this with a manager for advice and guidance on how to proceed. The list below suggests some of the types of activity that indicate improper behavior, unacceptable personal integrity, or unacceptable ethics:

1. Simultaneous employment by another firm that is a competitor of or supplier to the Company;
2. Carrying on company business with a firm in which the employee, or a close relative of the employee, has a substantial ownership or interest;
3. Holding a substantial interest in, or participating in the management of, a firm to which the company makes sales or from which it makes purchases;
4. Borrowing money from customers or firms, other than recognized loan institutions, from which our company buys services, materials, equipment, or supplies;
5. Accepting substantial gifts or excessive entertainment from an outside organization or agency;
6. Speculating or dealing in materials, equipment, supplies, services, or property purchased by the Company;
7. Participating in civic or professional organization activities in a manner that divulges confidential Company information;
8. Misusing privileged information or revealing confidential data to outsiders;

9. Using one's position in the Company or knowledge of its affairs for personal gains; and
10. Engaging in practices or procedures that violate antitrust laws, commercial bribery laws, copyright laws, discrimination laws, campaign contribution laws, or other laws regulating the conduct of Company business.

Customer, Client, and Visitor Relations

The Company strives to provide the best products and services possible to our customers and clients. Our customers and clients support this business and generate your wages. You are expected to treat every customer, client, or visitor with the utmost respect and courtesy during your working time. You should never argue or act in a disrespectful manner towards a visitor or customer during your working time.

If you are having problems with a customer, client, or visitor, notify your supervisors immediately. If a customer, client, or visitor voices a suggestion, complaint, or concern regarding our products or services, inform your supervisors or a member of management. Lastly, make every effort to be prompt in following up on customer, client, or visitor orders or questions. Positive customer, client, and visitor relations will go a long way to establishing our Company as a leader in its field.

Payroll and Timekeeping

Hours of Operations and Work Schedules

Hotel Wren normally is open for business from 7am to 9pm (Pacific Time), Daily. Employees will be assigned a work schedule and will be expected to begin and end work according to the schedule. To accommodate the needs of the business, at some point Hotel Wren may need to change individual work schedules on either a short-term or long-term basis.

Attendance

The success of the Company depends upon the cooperation and commitment of each member of our team. Your responsibility to the Company, your fellow employees and our clients requires good attendance and punctuality. Otherwise, your fellow employees must bear the burden of your absence. You must report to work on time. This means that you should be at your workplace and ready to work at your starting time. If you must be tardy, call your supervisor to let them know that you will be late. We recognize that there may be times when your absence or tardiness cannot be avoided. In such cases, you are expected to notify your supervisor as early as possible and, in the case of absence, at least one (1) hour before your regular starting time. If you know of your need to be absent in advance, advise your supervisor and obtain approval. If you are unable to reach your supervisor, please contact HR. Simply notifying your supervisor that you will be absent or tardy does not mean that the absence or tardiness is excused. An absence or tardiness will be deemed excused only if you have obtained your approval.

Excessive absenteeism or tardiness may result in disciplinary action, up to and including termination. If you are absent due to illness for more than three (3) consecutive days, the Company reserves the right to require a doctor's certificate before you return to work. Unexcused absences of three (3) or more days may result in disciplinary action, up to and including termination, as well. Unless you have made other arrangements with your supervisor, you should call your supervisor each day of your absence. If you fail to notify your supervisor of your absences for three (3) consecutive days, you will be considered to have voluntarily terminated your employment with the Company as of the first day of the unreported absence.

Paycheck Information

For payroll purposes, the workweek starts on Mondays at 12 am and ends at 11:59p.m. on the following Sunday. Your paycheck represents payment for the preceding payroll period. Paychecks for the previous pay period of work are distributed bi-weekly. If you are absent, you may arrange to have your check mailed to your home or picked up by sending a written request to your supervisor. If the payday falls on a holiday, you will receive your check on the last working day prior to the holiday. There are certain deductions that we are required to make by law.

Paycheck Deductions

Hotel Wren is required by law to make certain deductions from your pay each pay period, including deductions for federal income tax, Social Security and Medicare (FICA) taxes, state income taxes, state unemployment taxes, state disability insurance taxes, etc., and any other deductions required under law or by court order for wage garnishments. The amount of your tax deductions will depend on your earnings and the information you list on your federal Form W-4 and applicable state withholding form. Permissible deductions for exempt employees may also include, but are not limited to, deductions for full day/week absences for reasons other than sickness or disability and certain disciplinary suspensions. You may also authorize certain voluntary deductions from your paycheck where permissible under state law. Your deductions will be reflected in your wage statement. If you have any questions about deductions from your pay, contact your supervisors or HR.

The Company will not make deductions to your pay that are prohibited by federal, state, or local law. Review your paycheck for errors each pay period and immediately report any discrepancies to your supervisors.

You will be reimbursed in full for any isolated, inadvertent, or improper deductions, as defined by law. If an error is found, you will receive an immediate adjustment, which will be paid no later than your next regular payday.

The Company will not retaliate against employees who report erroneous deductions in accordance with this policy.

Rest Breaks and Meal Breaks

You will be provided with a rest period for every four hours worked, or major fraction thereof. We ask you to be responsible for taking a net ten (10)-minute paid rest period near the middle of each four (4)-hour period of time. If you work less than three and one-half (3-½) hours on a workday, a rest period is not required. You may not combine rest and meal periods, and also may not arrive late or leave early in lieu of taking a rest period. You are permitted to leave the premises during rest periods.

If you work a period of more than five (5) hours you must take an unpaid, uninterrupted meal period of thirty (30) minutes, before completion of the fifth (5th) hour of work. The only exception is where your total shift is not more than six (6) hours, you and your supervisor agree to waive the meal period and you sign a meal period waiver form (please see a manager or HR for a meal period waiver form). For example, if you work an eight and one-half (8-½) hour shift from 8:00 a.m. to 4:30 p.m., you must start a meal period before 1:00 p.m. If you work a six (6) hour shift from 8:00 a.m. to 2:00 p.m., your supervisor may allow you to waive the meal period, provided you sign a meal period waiver form. If you work more than ten (10) hours in a workday, you will be provided a second unpaid, uninterrupted meal period of thirty (30) minutes. This second meal period must be taken before completion of the tenth hour of work.

If you have taken your first meal break and your total workday is not more than twelve (12) hours, you may waive the second meal period by completing the meal period waive form. Except as specifically stated above, meal periods may not be skipped or waived by you for any other reason. You are permitted to leave the premises during meal periods. You are required to punch out at the beginning of each meal period and punch back in at the end of each meal period, being careful to observe that the meal period is not shorter than thirty (30) minutes.

If an employee is unable to take a meal or rest period in accordance with this policy, it is the employee's responsibility to inform Manager or HR in writing immediately by filing out a "Missed Meal or Rest Period" form.

Time Tracking

Hotel Wren is required by applicable federal, state, and local laws to keep accurate records of hours worked by certain employees. To ensure that the Company has complete and accurate time records and that employees are paid for all hours worked, nonexempt employees are required to record all working time using Company timecards/time sheets/punch clock/timekeeping application/other. Exempt employees may also be required to track days or time worked. Speak with your Manager for specific instructions.

You must accurately record all of your time to ensure you are paid for all hours worked and must follow established Company procedures for recording your hours worked. Time must be recorded as follows:

- Immediately before starting your shift.
- Immediately after finishing work, before your meal period.
- Immediately before resuming work, after your meal period.
- Immediately after finishing work.
- Immediately before and after any other time away from work.

Timesheets through our time keeping system need to be verified by the end of your shift.

Notify your manager or appropriate department of any pay discrepancies, unrecorded or mis-recorded work hours, or any involuntarily missed meal or break periods.

Falsifying time entries is strictly prohibited. Falsifying time entries includes working “off the clock.” If you falsify your own time records, or the time records of co-workers, or if you work off the clock, you will be subject to discipline up to and including termination. Immediately report to the appropriate party any employee, supervisor, or manager who falsifies your time entries or encourages or requires you to falsify your time entries or work off the clock.

Overtime

Non-exempt employees will be paid one and one-half times their regular rate of pay for all hours worked over forty (40) in a workweek, eight (8) hours in a workday or the first eight (8) hours on the seventh consecutive day of work in a workweek. Non-exempt employees will be paid two (2) times their regular rate of pay for all hours worked in excess of twelve (12) in a workday or in excess of eight (8) on the seventh consecutive day of work in a workweek. Paid holidays, or leaves of absence (disability leave, sick leave, personal leave etc.) are not considered hours worked for the purpose of computing overtime. Exempt employees are not entitled to overtime pay.

Please remember that you are not allowed to work overtime unless it has been pre-approved.

Prohibition Against Working Off the Clock

Non-exempt employees are paid based on hours worked. Thus, they should never clock in until they are ready to begin working and should not delay clocking out after completing their work. To ensure that everyone is paid for all hours worked, nonexempt employees should not perform any duties for the Company before clocking in or after clocking out (i.e., employees should not work off the clock). It is a violation of the law and Company policy to work off the clock, and anyone who does so or encourages others to do so is subject to disciplinary action, up to and including termination of employment.

One Day's Rest in Seven

Employees are entitled to one day's rest in seven or the monthly equivalent. This means the Company cannot require you or induce you to work seven consecutive days in the same workweek. Our workweek is defined as Monday through Sunday. However, you may work seven days in the same workweek should you voluntarily choose to do so.

There is no requirement to provide one day of rest in seven under the following circumstances: (1) the rules do not apply in emergencies when necessary to protect life or property from loss or destruction; (2) if the nature of the work reasonably requires the employee to work seven consecutive days, it is permissible if the employee receives the equivalent of one day off in seven for the calendar month; or (3) the one day off in seven rule does not apply if the total hours of employment do not exceed 30 hours in any week or six hours in any one day of the work week.

Split Shift Pay

A split shift is any two distinct work periods separated by more than a one-hour meal period. If there is more than one hour between shifts, the employee must receive one hour's pay at no less than the minimum wage rate for the time between the shifts.

In addition, the time between the split shifts are not counted towards overtime purposes because it is not compensation for hours actually worked.

Report-In Pay

If you report to work on a regularly scheduled work day and, because of unusual circumstances, no work is available and no reasonable attempt was made to previously notify you not to report to work or you perform work for less than one-half of your scheduled workday, you may be entitled to report-in pay. The amount of report-in pay will be calculated at your regular rate of pay and you will be paid for one-half of your scheduled day's work, but in no event for less than 2 hours or more than 4 hours. Report-in pay will not be paid due to conditions beyond the control of the Company (e.g., acts of God, etc.) or if any employee is sent home due to medical, disciplinary, or other reasons permitted by law. In order to be eligible under this policy, employees must have their current telephone number and address on file with the Company.

Report-In Pay Chart

Scheduled Hours	Hours of Reporting Pay Owed
10	4
9	4
8	4
7	3.5
6	3
5	2.5
4	2
3	2
2	2

Expense Reimbursement

The Company will reimburse expenses that are incurred for job-related purchases. Before making a purchase, please contact a manager for pre-approval. Make sure to keep receipts for such purchases and submit them to a manager.

Hotel Wren will reimburse mileage to attend a required business meeting outside of the normal commute at the current Federal rate.

We require employees to turn in expense reports by the 10th day of the following month.

Safety

General Safety

It is the responsibility of all Company employees to maintain a healthy and safe work environment, report any health or safety hazards, and follow the Hotel Wren health and safety rules. Failure to do so may result in disciplinary action, up to and including termination of employment. The Hotel Wren also requires that all occupational illnesses or injuries be reported to your manager as soon as reasonably possible and that an occupational illness or injury form be completed on each reported incident

Business Closure and Emergencies

The Company recognizes that inclement weather and other emergencies may affect your ability to get to work. In such situations, your safety is paramount.

Company Closure

Examples of emergencies when the Company may close include, but are not limited to, (, i.e., power outage, earthquake, fires).

Notification

In an emergency, the Company will make every effort to notify you of the closing by text or phone call. These notification efforts assume that you have access to electricity and internet and/or phone service.

When the Company is unable to notify you of the closure, use common sense to assess the safety and practicality of the situation. In a regional power outage, for example, the Company is likely to have no power. If there is reported flash flooding in your area, report to work only if you can make it safely.

Partial-Day Closure

If an emergency event such as inclement weather or a power outage occurs, the Company may decide to close at midday. When the Company closes mid-day, you will be instructed to leave immediately so that the conditions do not further deteriorate and affect your ability to travel safely.

If you are exempt and are working at home with prior permission, or at the office on the day of the partial day closure, you will be paid your normal salary for the week. If you are nonexempt, you will be paid for the hours you worked, unless state law dictates otherwise.

Notified of Closure Prior to Reporting to Work

If you are nonexempt and are notified of a closure prior to reporting to work, you will not be paid during the closure, unless state law dictates otherwise. If you are exempt, you will be paid your normal salary for the week.

Benefits Coverage

Your health insurance coverage will be maintained by the Company during the closure on the same basis as if you were still working.

Extending Leave

When the Company closure ends, you are expected to report to work. Contact your supervisors if you cannot return to work at the end of the closure. The Company recognizes that you may need additional time off to repair extensive home damage or for other emergency situations. These will be assessed on a case-by-case basis.

If You Cannot Get to Work

Unique circumstances may affect your ability to come to work even when the Company is able to remain open. The Company recognizes that in a severe national or regional disaster, all methods of communication may be unavailable; however, you should continue to try and contact your supervisors, by any method possible.

Time missed under circumstances where the Company remains open and you are unable to report to work is to be used as vacation time, personal time, or is unpaid.

Drug and Alcohol Policy

The Company is committed to providing a safe, healthy, and productive work environment. Consistent with this commitment, it is the intent of the Company to maintain a drug and alcohol-free workplace. Being under the influence of alcohol, illegal drugs (as classified under federal, state, or local laws), or other impairing substances while on the job may pose a serious health and safety risk to others and will not be tolerated.

Prohibited Conduct

The Company expressly prohibits employees from engaging in the following activities when they are on duty or conducting Company business or on Company premises (whether or not they are working):

- The use, abuse, or being under the influence of alcohol, illegal drugs, or other impairing substances.
- The possession, sale, purchase, transfer, or transit of any illegal or unauthorized drug, including prescription medication that is not prescribed to the individual, or drug-related paraphernalia.
- The illegal use or abuse of prescription drugs.

While the use of marijuana has been legalized under some state laws for medicinal and/or recreational uses, it remains an illegal drug under federal law. The Company does not discriminate against employees or applicants solely on the basis of their lawful off-duty use of marijuana. You may not consume or be under the influence of marijuana while on duty or at work. If you have a valid prescription for medical marijuana, refer to the Company Disability Accommodation policy for additional information.

Nothing in this policy is meant to prohibit your appropriate use of over-the-counter medication or other medication that can legally be prescribed under both federal and state law, if it does not impair your job performance or safety or the safety of others. If you take over-the-counter medication or other medication that can legally be prescribed under both federal and state law to treat a disability, inform your supervisors if you believe the medication may impair your job performance, safety, or the safety of others or if you believe you need a reasonable accommodation before reporting to work while under the influence of that medication.

Employer-Sponsored Events

From time to time, the Company may sponsor social or business-related events where alcohol may be served. This policy does not prohibit the use or consumption of alcohol at these events. However, if you choose to consume alcohol at such events, you must do so responsibly and maintain your obligation to conduct yourself properly and professionally at all times.

Violations

Violation of this policy may result in disciplinary action, up to and including termination of employment.

Smoke-Free Workplace

Smoking is not allowed on Company work sites at any time. “Smoking” includes the use of any tobacco products (including chewing tobacco), electronic smoking devices, and e-cigarettes. Smoking is only permitted during break times in designated outdoor areas. Employees using these areas are expected to dispose of any smoking debris safely and properly.

Policy Against Workplace Violence

Hotel Wren is committed to providing a safe, violence-free workplace for our employees. Due to this commitment, we discourage employees from engaging in any physical confrontation with a violent or potentially violent individual or from behaving in a threatening or violent manner. Threats, threatening language, or any other acts of aggression or violence made toward or by any employee will not be tolerated. A threat may include any verbal or physical harassment or abuse, attempts to intimidate others, menacing gestures, stalking, or any other hostile, aggressive, and/or destructive actions taken for the purposes of intimidation. This policy covers any violent or potentially violent behavior that occurs in the workplace or at Company-sponsored functions.

All Company employees bear the responsibility of keeping our work environment free from violence or potential violence. Any employee who witnesses or is the recipient of violent behavior should promptly inform their supervisor, manager, or the Human Resources Department. All threats will be promptly investigated. No employee will be subject to retaliation, intimidation, or discipline as a result of reporting a threat in good faith under this guideline.

Any individual engaging in violence against the Company, its employees, or its property will be prosecuted to the full extent of the law. All acts will be investigated, and the appropriate action will be taken. Any such act or threatening behavior may result in disciplinary action up to and including termination.

Hotel Wren prohibits the possession of weapons on its property at all times, including our parking lots or Company vehicles. Additionally, while on duty, employees may not carry a weapon of any type. Weapons include, but are not limited to, handguns, rifles, automatic weapons, and knives that can be used as weapons (excluding pocketknives, utility knives, and other instruments that are used to open packages, cut string, and for other miscellaneous tasks), martial arts paraphernalia, stun guns, and tear gas. Any employee violating this policy is subject to discipline up to and including dismissal for the first offense.

The Company reserves the right to inspect all belongings of employees on its premises, including packages, briefcases, purses and handbags, gym bags, and personal vehicles on Company property. In addition, our Company may inspect the contents of lockers, storage areas, file cabinets, desks, and workstations at any time and may remove all Company property and other items that are in violation of Company rules and policies.

COVID19

Hotel Wren will adhere to all federal, state, and local laws regarding COVID-19 response and prevention. Employees are expected to comply with policies and procedures related to COVID-19, including, but not necessarily limited to screening and reporting of symptoms, reporting exposure, quarantine and isolation periods, masking (when applicable), etc.

Emergency Conditions

Employees may be permitted to, and will not face adverse employment actions (warnings, dismissal, etc.) for leaving work, or refusing to report to work during an “emergency condition,” which is defined as “disaster or extreme peril to safety at the workplace. “Emergency conditions” under this policy may be caused by natural forces, a crime at the workplace, at the employee’s home, or at their child’s school. Pandemics are excluded from the definition of “emergency condition” under this policy.

Benefits

Sick Time

Pursuant to the Healthy Workplaces, Healthy Families Act (HWHFA), all employees will be eligible for paid sick leave benefits. To be eligible for paid sick leave benefits, the employee must work a minimum of 30 days.

Usage

Employees can use accrued paid sick leave beginning on the 90th day of employment. Paid sick leave may be used in minimum increments of two (2) hours. A full-time employee may use up to five (5) days or 40 hours of paid sick leave in any year. Part-time employees accrue sick leave at 1 hour for every 30 hours worked.

Paid sick leave may be used for the following reasons:

- For diagnosis, care or treatment of an existing health condition of or preventive care for, the team member or the team member's family member (meaning a child, including biological, adopted or foster child, stepchild, legal ward or a child to whom the team member stands in loco parentis, all regardless of age or dependency status); spouse; registered domestic partner; parent (including biological, adoptive or foster parent, stepparent or legal guardian of the team member or the team member's spouse or registered domestic partner or a person who stood in loco parentis when the team member was a minor child); grandparent; grandchild; or a sibling; or a "Designated Person"; or
- For the team member who is a victim of domestic violence, sexual assault or stalking: to obtain or attempt to obtain a temporary restraining order, restraining order or other injunctive relief;
- to help ensure the health, safety or welfare of the victim or the victim's child;
- To seek medical attention for injuries caused by domestic violence, sexual assault, or stalking;
- To obtain services from a domestic violence shelter, program, or rape crisis center as a result of domestic violence, sexual assault or stalking;
- To obtain psychological counseling related to an experience of domestic violence, sexual assault, or stalking; or
- To participate in safety planning and take other actions to increase safety from future domestic violence, sexual assault, or stalking, including temporary or permanent relocation.
- Court-ordered appearances such as jury duty or to appear in court under a court order as a witness in a judicial proceeding
- If an employee or their family member is a victim of qualifying acts of violence (QAOV), leave may be used for any situation covered by the California Victim Leave Law.

Employees will be notified of their available paid sick leave on each itemized wage statement.

Definition - "Designated person" is defined as anyone related to the requesting employee by blood, or whose association with the requesting employee is equivalent to that of a family member. The Company limits employees to one "designated person" per twelve-month period. The person must be designated at the time the leave is requested.

Carryover and Payout

Accrued paid sick leave carries over from year to year but is subject to the accrual cap of ten (10) days or 80 hours. Once the accrual cap is reached, paid sick leave will stop accruing until some paid sick leave is used.

Accrued but unused paid sick leave under this policy will not be paid at separation.

Vacation Time

The Company recognizes the importance of uninterrupted periods of rest and relaxation for all of our employees. Our vacation plan is based upon your continuous service and classification as an exempt or non-exempt employee. You will earn vacation at the following rates:

FULL TIME EMPLOYEES

Vacation Accrual - 10 days/80 hours

For purposes of computing months of continuous service, unpaid time taken off from work (e.g., leaves of absence) will not be counted. Your vacation pay will be based upon the hours for which you have been regularly scheduled to work per week during your past anniversary year. Vacation will be compensated at your regular straight-time hourly rate of pay as of the date you take your vacation.

Except in emergency situations, you must request vacation time at least ten (10) days in advance of the requested time off. Every effort will be made to grant your vacation preference, consistent with the efficient operation of our business. However, if we cannot do so, another mutually agreeable date will be scheduled for your vacation. Vacation time must be pre-approved by a supervisor.

Part-time regular employees receive PTO time in proportion to their work schedule.

PTO granted during your first year of employment will be prorated based on your hire date.

During a Leave of Absence

Hotel Wren may require you to use any unused PTO during disability or family medical leave, or any other leave of absence, where permissible under local, state, and federal law. You will not accrue PTO during unpaid leaves of absence, or other periods of inactive service, unless PTO accrual is required by applicable federal, state, or local law.

Carryover

Each employee may carry his/her accrued time PTO over into a new calendar year. Employees are responsible for monitoring and taking their PTO over the course of a year so that they do not lose time accrued when the current calendar year ends. However, Hotel Wren hereby places a cap of 1.5 times the annual PTO accrual rate. In other words, once employees reach a certain number of days, they will stop accruing vacation days/PTO until they use some of their vacation days.

If you leave the Company you will be paid any balance of your accrued vacation.

Worker's Compensation

Workers' compensation is a "no-fault" system that provides compensation for medical expenses and wage losses to employees who are injured or who become ill because of employment.

Hotel Wren pays the entire cost of workers' compensation insurance. The insurance provides coverage for related medical and rehabilitation expenses and a portion of lost wages to employees who sustain an injury on the job.

The Company abides by all applicable state workers' compensation laws and regulations.

If an employee sustains a job-related injury or illness, it is important to notify the Manager or HR immediately. In cases of true medical emergencies, report to the nearest emergency room.

Please note that you will not be covered by insurance or worker's compensation for any work you do voluntarily, or outside of Hotel Wren.

State Disability Insurance

As an additional benefit, you are covered under the State disability insurance plan which provides benefits in the event you need to miss work due to a non-work-related accident or illness. A small percentage of your wages will be deducted each pay period for disability insurance. Benefits will begin from the first day you are hospitalized or after the seventh day of illness or accident if you are not hospitalized. You must file a claim to receive any payment. Claim forms are available from HR or online at www.edd.ca.gov.

Unemployment Insurance

If your employment terminates, you may be eligible to receive unemployment insurance benefits. Each pay period the Company makes a contribution on your behalf into the State's Unemployment Insurance program. You must file a claim with the State to collect this benefit. Ask HR about unemployment insurance if your employment terminates.

Time off and Leaves of Absence

Bereavement Leave

Employees with more than 30 days of service may take up to 5 days of unpaid bereavement leave upon the death of a member of their immediate family. "Immediate family members" are defined as an employee's spouse, domestic partner, parents, stepparents, siblings, children, stepchildren, grandparent, parent-in-law, siblings-in-law, children-in-law, or grandchildren.

The Company may require verification of the need for the leave. The employee's supervisor and HR will consider this time off on a case-by-case basis.

Reproductive Loss Leave

Employees who have worked for the Company for at least thirty (30) days are eligible for up to five (5) days of leave if they experience a reproductive loss, such as miscarriage, failed surrogacy, stillbirth, failed adoption, or unsuccessful embryo transfer or artificial insemination. In accordance with this policy, leave must be completed within three (3) months of the reproductive loss. Leave may be taken on nonconsecutive days. Employees who experience more than one, or multiple losses in one 12-month period, may be granted time off under this policy for each incident of loss, not to exceed twenty (20) days in 12 months.

Leave taken in accordance with this policy is unpaid, however employees may apply accrued, available sick leave to reproductive loss leave. Reproductive loss leave is separate and distinct from other types of leave including bereavement and CFRA leaves. Employees will not be asked to provide documentation validating their need for this leave but should follow existing absence-reporting or leave-requesting procedures to notify the Company of their need for leave under this policy.

California Family Rights Act (CFRA)

The California Family Rights Act (CFRA) provides eligible employees the opportunity to take unpaid, job-protected leave for certain specified reasons. The maximum amount of leave employees may use under this policy is twelve (12) weeks within a 12-month period. For more information regarding leave under this policy, employees should contact human resources.

Eligibility

To be eligible for CFRA leave, employees must:

Have worked at least twelve (12) months for Hotel Wren in the preceding seven years (limited exceptions apply to the seven-year requirement).

Have worked at least 1,250 hours for Hotel Wren over the twelve (12) months preceding the date the leave would commence.

All periods of absence from work due to or necessitated by service in the uniformed services are counted as hours worked in determining eligibility.

Conditions Triggering Leave

CFRA leave may be taken for any of the following reasons:

- To care for or bond with a newborn child.
- To care for or bond with a child placed with the employee and/or the employee's registered domestic partner for adoption or foster care.
- To care for an immediate family member (employee's spouse, parent, parent-in-law, registered domestic partner, child or registered domestic partner's child of any age, sibling, grandparent, or grandchild), or "designated person" with a serious health condition.
- An employee's serious health condition that prevents the employee from performing their job (except for 'pregnancy, which is covered under Pregnancy Disability Leave and does not run concurrently with CFRA).

A qualifying military exigency related to the covered active duty or call to covered active duty of an employee's spouse, domestic partner, child (of any age) or parent in the United States armed forces, as specified in Section 3302.2 of the Unemployment Insurance Code.

Definition - "Designated Person" is defined as anyone related to the requesting employee by blood, or whose association with the requesting employee is equivalent to that of a family member. The Company limits employees to one "designated person" per twelve-month period. The person must be designated at the time the leave is requested.

Identifying the 12-Month Period

The "12-month period" will be measured based on a rolling 12-month period measured backward from the date your leave commences. In addition, CFRA leave for the birth or placement of a child for adoption or foster care must be concluded within 12 months of the child's birth or placement.

Intermittent Leave

Eligible employees may take CFRA leave in a single block of time, intermittently (in separate blocks of time) or by reducing the normal work schedule when medically necessary for the serious health condition of the employee or immediate family member. Intermittent leave for the birth of a child, to care for a newborn child or for the placement of a child for adoption or foster care generally must be taken in at least two-week increments under the CFRA, with shorter increments allowed on two occasions. Employees who require intermittent or reduced-schedule leave must try to schedule their leave so that it will not unduly disrupt Hotel Wren's operations. Intermittent leave is permitted in intervals of at least one hour, or at the same intervals as provided in Hotel Wren's sick leave policy, whichever increments are smaller.

Use of Accrued Paid Leave

Employees may choose to use accrued paid leave concurrently with some or all the CFRA leave. Employees receiving state disability benefits or paid family leave benefits will not be required to use accrued paid leave. To use paid leave concurrently with CFRA leave, eligible employees must comply with Hotel Wren's normal procedures for the applicable paid leave policy (e.g., call-in procedures, advance notice).

Procedures

When seeking leave under this policy, employees must provide the following:

Thirty (30) days' advance notice of the need to take CFRA leave if the need for leave is foreseeable or notice as soon as practicable in the case of unforeseeable leave and in compliance with Hotel Wren's normal call-in procedures, absent unusual circumstances.

Medical certification supporting the need for leave due to a serious health condition affecting the requesting employee or an immediate family member within fifteen (15) calendar days of Hotel Wren's request for the certification (additional time may be permitted in some circumstances).

Failure to do so may result in delay of the commencement of leave or denial of a leave request.

Second or third medical opinions and periodic recertification may also be required.

Periodic reports as deemed appropriate during the leave regarding the employee's status and intent to return to work.

Medical release before returning to work if the leave was due to the employee's serious health condition. Hotel Wren will require this release to address whether employees can perform the essential functions of their position.

Failure to comply with the foregoing requirements may result in delay or denial of leave or disciplinary action, up to and including termination.

Employer Responsibilities

To the extent required by law, Hotel Wren will inform employees whether they are eligible for leave under the CFRA. Should employees be eligible for CFRA leave, Hotel Wren will provide them with a notice that specifies any additional information required, as well as their rights and responsibilities.

Hotel Wren will also inform employees if leave will be designated as CFRA-protected and, to the extent possible, note the amount of leave counted against employees' leave entitlement. If employees are not eligible for CFRA leave, Hotel Wren will provide a reason for the ineligibility. CFRA leave will run concurrently with other federal/state laws where permitted by law. The Company may require subsequent recertification of your own serious health condition if additional leave is required.

If Hotel Wren has reason to doubt the validity of the certification provided, The Company may require, at its own expense, that you obtain a second opinion from a health care provider, designated, or approved by The Company. If the second opinion differs from the original certification, the Company may again require, at its own expense, that you obtain a third opinion from a different health care provider, designated, or approved jointly by you and Hotel Wren. The third opinion will be considered final and binding.

Reinstatement

Upon return to work at the end of leave, you will be placed in your original job or an equivalent job with equivalent pay and benefits. You will not lose any benefits that accrued before leave was taken. You may not, however, be entitled to discretionary raises, promotions, bonus payments, or other benefits that become available during the period of leave.

Failure to Return After CFRA Leave

If an employee fails to return to work as scheduled after CFRA leave or if an employee exceeds the 12-week CFRA entitlement, the employee will be subject to Hotel Wren's other applicable leave of absence, accommodation, and attendance policies. This may result in termination if the employee has no other Company-provided leave available that applies to the continued absence.

Hotel Wren provides unpaid family and medical leave to eligible employees in accordance with the California Family Rights Act (CFRA).

Benefits

If the Company provides you with health benefits under a group health plan, The Company will maintain and pay for your health coverage for up to 12 weeks at the same level and under the same conditions as coverage would have been provided if you had not taken CFRA leave.

Retaliation

Hotel Wren will not retaliate against employees who request or take leave in accordance with this policy.

Pregnancy Disability Leave

You will be eligible for an unpaid disability leave of absence due to childbirth or pregnancy-related disability. A person is "disabled by pregnancy" if, in the opinion of their health care provider, they are unable because of pregnancy to perform any one or more of the essential functions of their job or to perform any of these functions without undue risk to themselves, to their pregnancy's successful completion, or to other persons. An employee also may be considered "disabled by pregnancy" if, in the opinion of their health care provider, they are suffering from severe "morning sickness" or where the employee needs to take time off for:

- Prenatal or postnatal care;
- Bed rest;
- Gestational diabetes;
- Pregnancy-induced hypertension;
- Preeclampsia;
- Post-partum depression;
- Childbirth;
- Loss or end of pregnancy; and
- Recovery from childbirth, loss, or end of pregnancy.

The pregnancy-related disability leave of absence will be for the period of disability up to a maximum of four (4) months (17 1/3 weeks). "Four months" is defined as one-third of a year or 17 1/3 weeks. For example, a full-time employee working 40 hours a week is entitled to 693 hours of leave; part-time employees working 20 hours per week are entitled to 346.6 hours of leave; and an employee who works 48 hours per week is entitled to 832 hours of leave. All requests for a disability leave of absence (or extensions) must be made in writing for final approval. The request must include a doctor's certificate stating the nature of and estimated period of disability.

Voting time

In the event employees do not have sufficient time outside of working hours to vote in a statewide election, employees may take off sufficient working time to vote. This time should be taken at the beginning or end of the regular work schedule, whichever allows the most free time for voting and the least time off from work. Employees will be allowed a maximum of two (2) hours of voting leave on Election Day without loss of pay.

Time off for Victim of Domestic Violence, Sexual Assault, or Stalking

Employees who are victims of domestic violence, sexual assault, or criminal stalking are allowed time off work, in accordance with applicable law, when the employee is a victim of domestic violence, sexual assault, or stalking, to:

- obtain or attempt to obtain any relief, including, but not limited to, a temporary restraining order, restraining order, or other injunctive relief, to help ensure the health, safety, or welfare of the employee or employee's child;
- seek medical attention for the employee's injuries
- obtain services from a domestic violence shelter, program, or rape crisis center
- obtain psychological counseling
- participate in safety planning and take other actions to increase safety from future domestic violence, sexual assault, or stalking, including temporary or permanent relocation.
- A victim of domestic violence must give the Company reasonable advance notice of the intention to take time off for any of the above purposes unless reasonable notice is not feasible.
- When an unscheduled absence occurs, the employee, within a reasonable time after the absence, must provide one of the following to the Manager or HR.
- a police report indicating that the employee was a victim of domestic violence, sexual assault, or criminal stalking;

- a court order protecting or separating the employee from the perpetrator of an act of domestic violence, sexual assault, or criminal stalking, or other evidence from the court or prosecuting attorney that the employee appeared in court; or
- documentation from a licensed medical professional, domestic violence counselor, sexual assault counselor, licensed health care provider, or counselor that the employee was undergoing treatment for physical or mental injuries or abuse resulting in victimization from an act of domestic violence, sexual assault, or criminal stalking.

While such leave is unpaid, employees are permitted to use available paid sick leave.

Hotel Wren will not retaliate or in any manner discriminate against an employee for taking time off under this policy. Additionally, the Company will endeavor to provide reasonable accommodation to victims of domestic violence, sexual assault, or stalking, in accordance with the law.

Jury Duty and Witness Leave

We believe it is your civic duty to serve on a jury panel if called or to appear in court if subpoenaed to testify as a witness. Non-exempt employees who are required to serve on jury duty will be entitled to a temporary, unpaid leave of absence for the duration of their jury service. Non-exempt employees who are subpoenaed to appear in court to testify as witnesses will also be entitled to a temporary, unpaid leave of absence for the time necessary to testify.

You must present your jury summons or subpoena to your supervisor as soon as you receive it. Of course, you are expected to report for work during hours or days that your presence is not required in court.

Non-exempt employees may use accrued paid leave, such as vacation or sick leave, during their jury duty or court appearance. If you choose not to use paid leave, your leave will be considered unpaid.

Military/Veterans Leave

Employees engaged in military-related activities are entitled to Military or Veteran leave. Employees who need to engage in service have up to 5 years for service. Employees who need time in the year for training shall receive up to 17 days per year for training. This leave coordinated with the USERRA leave under the federal law.

Retaliation

Hotel Wren will not retaliate against employees who request or take leave in accordance with this policy.

Volunteer Civil Service and Training Leave

Hotel Wren provides unpaid leave to eligible employees who are volunteer firefighters, reserve peace officers or emergency rescue personnel so that such employees may respond to a call to emergency duty.

Eligibility

Employees should notify the Company of their status as a volunteer firefighter, reserve peace officer or emergency rescue personnel. Additionally, employees should provide as much advanced notice as practicable of the need for leave under this policy when they are called to emergency service. Employees may use accrued, unused paid time off for leave taken under this policy. The notice and eligibility requirements for any such paid time off will generally apply to an employee's request for use of paid time off under this policy.

Procedures

Employees requesting leave under this policy should comply with the following requirements: As soon as practicable after hire, or on becoming designated as a volunteer firefighter, reserve peace officer or emergency rescue personnel, employees should notify the Company of their status. When called to emergency service, an employee should notify their manager soon as practicable of the need for leave under this policy and provide information regarding the start and end dates for the requested leave.

When returning from leave under this policy, the employee should provide HR with appropriate written documentation confirming that during the leave the employee was actively engaged in responding to an emergency.

On returning from leave under this policy, employees will typically be restored to their positions, or to an equivalent position with equivalent pay, benefits, and other employment terms and conditions. Employees with questions regarding this leave should contact Human Resources.

Crime Victims Leave

Employees who have been victims of serious or violent felonies, as specified under California law, or felonies relating to theft or embezzlement, may take time off work to attend judicial proceedings related to the crime. Employees also may take time off if an immediate family member has been a victim of such crimes and the team member needs to attend judicial proceedings related to the crime. "Immediate family member" is defined as spouse, registered domestic partner, child, child of registered domestic partner, stepchild, siblings, stepsiblings, parents, or stepparents.

Employees must give their supervisor a copy of the court notice given to the victim of each scheduled proceeding before taking time off unless advance notice to Hotel Wren of the need for time off is not feasible. When advance notice is not feasible, the team member must provide Hotel Wren with documentation evidencing the judicial proceeding, within a reasonable time after the absence. The documentation may be from the court or government agency setting the hearing, the district attorney or prosecuting attorney's office or the victim/witness office that is advocating on behalf of the victim.

Employees may elect to use accrued paid vacation time, paid sick leave time or other paid time off for the absence. If the team member does not elect to use paid time off, the absence will be unpaid. However, exempt Employees will be paid their full salary for any workweek interrupted by the need for time off under this policy.

Personal Leave

If team members are ineligible for any other Company leave of absence, Hotel Wren, under certain circumstances, may grant a personal leave of absence without pay. A written request for a personal leave should be presented to management at least two (2) weeks before the anticipated start of the leave. The request will be considered on the basis of staffing requirements and the reasons for the requested leave, as well as performance and attendance records. Normally, a leave of absence will be granted for a period of up to 4 weeks. However a personal leave may be extended if, prior to the end of leave, team members submit a written request for an extension to management and the request is granted. During the leave, team members will not earn vacation, personal days, or sick days. We will continue health insurance coverage during the leave if team members submit their share of the monthly premium payments to Company in a timely manner, subject to the terms of the plan documents.

When the team members anticipate returning to work, they should notify management of the expected return date. This notification should be made at least one week before the end of the leave.

Upon completion of the personal leave of absence, Company will attempt to return team members to their original job or a similar position, subject to prevailing business considerations. Reinstatement, however, is not guaranteed.

Failure to advise management of availability to return to work, failure to return to work when notified or a continued absence from work beyond the time approved by Company will be considered a voluntary resignation of employment.

Miscellaneous Leave Laws

In addition to providing the types of leave discussed above, the Company will comply with all other state and federal laws providing leaves of absence. Employees who believe they are entitled to any form of leave not discussed above should consult with Human Resources or the President & CEO.

Termination

Involuntary Resignation

Violation of the Company policies and rules may warrant disciplinary action. Company may, in its sole discretion, use whatever form of discipline is deemed appropriate under the circumstances, up to, and including, termination of employment. The Company's approach to discipline in no way limits or alters the at-will employment relationship.

Voluntary Resignation

Voluntary resignation results when an employee voluntarily quits their employment at Company or fails to report to work for at least two consecutively scheduled workdays without notice to, or approval by, their manager. All Company-owned property, including keys, cell phone, uniforms, identification badges, and credit cards, must be returned immediately upon termination of employment.

Exit Interviews

Employees who resign are requested to participate in an exit interview with a manager, if possible.

Closing Statement

This handbook is intended to give Employees a broad summary of things they should know about the Company. The information in this handbook is general in nature and, should questions arise, any member should be consulted for complete details. While we intend to continue the policies, rules and benefits described in this handbook, Company, in its sole discretion, may always amend, add to, delete from, or modify the provisions of this handbook and/or change its interpretation of any provision set forth in this handbook. Employees should not hesitate to speak to management if they have any questions about the Company or its personnel policies and practices.

GENERAL HANDBOOK ACKNOWLEDGMENT

The Employee handbook is an important document intended to help Employees become acquainted with Hotel Wren. This document is intended to provide guidelines and general descriptions only; it is not the final word in all cases. Individual circumstances may call for individual attention.

Because Hotel Wren operations may change, the contents of this handbook may be changed at any time, with or without notice, in an individual case or generally, at the sole discretion of owners.

Please read the following statements and initial and sign below to indicate your receipt and acknowledgment of this handbook.

I have received and read a copy of Hotel Wren's Employee Handbook. I understand that the policies, rules and benefits described in it are subject to change at the sole discretion of Hotel Wren at any time. _____

I further understand that my employment is terminable at will, either by myself or Hotel Wren, with or without cause or notice, regardless of the length of my employment or the granting of benefits of any kind. _____

I understand that no representative of Hotel Wren may alter "at will" status and any such modification must be in a signed writing. _____

I have read and understand the Discrimination, Harassment, Bullying, and Retaliation Policies.

I understand that if I am a non-exempt employee, meals and rest periods are to be uninterrupted and duty free. _____

I understand that my signature below indicates that I have read and understand the above statements and that I have received a copy of Hotel Wren Employee Handbook.

Employee's Printed Name: Eric D. Berry

Employee's Signature: Eric D. Berry

Position: Interim Hotel Manager

Date: 7/23/2026

The signed original copy of this acknowledgment should be given to HR, and it will be filed in your personnel file.